

EUROPEAN AGRICULTURAL POLICY FOR CIRCULAR AGRICULTURE

The new common agricultural policy can be implemented in a more flexible and dynamic way through the use of eco-schemes based on a points system and performance indicators. Farmers who improve their performance on circular agriculture principles receive more points, and therefore higher payments. Linking eco-schemes to private sustainability schemes gives an additional incentive to change and reduces the administrative burden.

